Exclusion of Liability

1. Contents of Website
The author shall assume no guarantee whatsoever for the currency, correctness, completeness or quality of the information provided. Liability claims against the author, which refer to damage of a material or non-material nature, resulting from the use or non-use of the information offered or through the use of incorrect or incomplete information, shall always be excluded, provided it is not due to intent or gross negligence on the part of the author. All offers are subject to prior sale and non-binding. The author expressly reserves the right to change, add to or delete parts of the pages or the entire website, or to discontinue its publication temporarily or permanently.

2. References and Links
In case of direct or indirect references to the websites ("Links") of others, which lie outside the scope of responsibility of the author, a liability obligation would only become effective if the author has a knowledge of the contents and it were technically possible and reasonable for him/her to prevent usage in the case of illegal contents. The author herewith expressly declares that no illegal contents were recognisable on the websites to be linked at the time the links were set. The author has no influence whatsoever on the current and future design, the contents or the authorship of the linked websites. Therefore, he/she herewith expressly disassociates himself/herself from the linked websites which have been changed after the links were set. This statement applies to all links and references set within the company's own website and for the entries of others in guest books, discussion forums and mailing lists established by the author. The provider of the website referred to bear the sole responsibility for illegal, incorrect or incomplete contents, and in particular for damage resulting from the use or non-use of information offered in this way, and not the operator of the website, who only refers to the respective website with links

3. Copyright and Trademark Law
The author makes an effort to observe the copyrights of the graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts in all publications, to use graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts created by himself/herself or to utilise graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts not subject to licensing. All trade marks named within the website and which are protected by third parties are subject without restriction to the regulations of the respectively applicable trademark law and the property rights of the respectively registered owner. Alone the mere mention does not justify the conclusion that trademarks are not protected by the rights of others! The copyright for published objects created by the author himself/herself remains the sole property of the author of the website. A duplication or use of such graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts in other electronic or printed publications is not permitted without the express permission of the author.

4. Data Protection

If it is possible to enter personal or business data (email addresses, names, addresses) within the website, then these data are revealed by the user on an expressly voluntary basis. The use and payment of all offered services is, inasmuch as it is technically possible and reasonable, also permitted without the specification of such data or with specification of anonymous data or a pseudonym. The use of e-mail addresses contained in this website for delivery of unwanted (Spam) e-mails is expressly prohibited.

5. Legal Validity of Exclusion of Liability

This exclusion of liability is to be viewed as part of the website from which reference is made to this page. If parts or individual formulations of this text do not or no longer comply with the valid legal situation, or not completely, the remaining parts of the document shall remain unaffected with regard to their content and their validity.
